

Individuals and community groups are invited to help with spring cleaning the High Trestle Trail (formerly called the Ankeny to Woodward Trail) in Madrid and rural Boone County by picking up trash that has accumulated over the last several months.† Keep Boone County Beautiful trash bags and a brief instruction sheet are available at Madrid City Hall, 304 South Water Street in Madrid, during normal business hours.† Volunteer groups and individual trail users are encouraged to organize their own cleanup days or simply pick up a trash bag to use when they are going out on the trail.† Volunteers may work on any part of the trail in Madrid and Boone County.□Trail users are reminded to please carry out their own trash.□□The Keep Boone County Beautiful Program, the Friends of Boone County Trails, the City of Madrid and the Boone County Conservation Board are encouraging people to help with the cleanup in the next few weeks so that Madrid and Boone County can present a good face to area residents and visitors alike.† For more information call Becky Roorda, 515-795-2647, Madrid City Hall, 515-795-3930, or the Keep Boone County Beautiful program, 515-433-0591 or kbc@boonelandfill.org.† Individuals and groups who are interested in adopting a portion of the trail for regular cleanup should contact the Keep Boone County Beautiful program.
